Very good red wines from the 2011 vintage, a great Trockenbeereauslese and solid entry-level wines – that is our take on the current range of wines.

The father, and founder of the estate, Günther Bardorf as well as Stefan Bardorf, who is responsible for making the wines, have two firm pillars to their business, the wine estate and the »Löwen« restaurant, which is attached. They have consistently expanded the vineyard area in recent years, and have converted around 2.5 of the total of 3 hectares to organic methods. Looking at the 2012 vintage, the typical, juicy Müller-Thurgau is good, as is the opulent and elegant Trockenbeereauslese. The two red wines presented open up totally new perspectives for the estate. The Domina Spätlese is among the best we have tasted this year, while the clear, firmly structured Pinot Noir with its sweet cherry fruit is certainly also among the top wines of its type in the region.
